THE FUTURE UNDER ONE ROOF

GET Nord is the leading trade fair in the north for the entire spectrum of building services engineering

This is the meeting place for the leading players from the electrical, sanitary, heating and air-conditioning sectors and everyone who is setting new standards with leading ideas in building technology. With over 550 national and international exhibitors, Germany's only joint trade fair is an event not to be missed by anyone who wants to be at the forefront of the industry. Take this opportunity to secure your desired stand position for your company now.

ONE TRADE FAIR, ALL TARGET GROUPS

Impress your target group and make new contacts:
At GET Nord you will be able to reach the most important decision-makers from all trades. The trade fair also attracts visitors from other exciting sectors beyond the craft trades, thanks in no small part to the extensive supporting programme.
